As one climbs the mountains in the very center of the Sehl Peninsula, the Sumonada Sea peeks in and out of view. This course centers on the Kounoura Dam and takes guests through peaceful backroads that allow one to see traditional stone houses and get a glimpse of the way people lived here long ago. The scenery is filled with houses and walls made of crystalline schist, which is plentiful in the Sehl Peninsula, and are sure to leave an impression. This course also cuts laterally through the Selhi Peninsula allowing our guests to cross the beautiful mountain streams and ravines of the Nagasaki Kermin no Mort, a place frequented by campers.
